

TEENPACT[®]
LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS

Dear David,

Are you concerned about the political environment of our country? Do you have questions about how the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches work together, not only in our day, but also as set forth by our founding fathers? Do you wonder how this all relates to the Bible and the checks and balances established by God? Do you wonder how to communicate this worldview to your sons and daughters?

If you have any of these questions, or others relating to the role of government or justice in our country, consider sending your son or daughter to TeenPact Leadership School at the State Capitol in Hartford. The four-day program will teach your students the foundations of government from a biblical perspective. The students learn how a bill becomes a law, how parliamentary procedures work, how basic campaigning works, how lobbyists work in Connecticut, how to speak in public. The class is open to home school students from 13-19 years of age. In addition, there is a one-day program for students aged 8-12 that introduces all this in a fun-filled atmosphere. The Connecticut State Class is scheduled from April 12-16 at the Capitol.

This is an opportunity to learn, to enjoy the learning, and to get school credit at the same time. In addition, if you sign up by February 11 you will be able to take advantage of an early-bird discount.

If you are interested in learning more, or if you would like to have students or parents whose families have benefited from TeenPact Leadership School speak to your group, feel free to contact Ruth Martin at 860-918-6411 (email at connecticut@teenpact.com) or me at the number below. You can also find additional information on the TeenPact website.
